

The Connecticut Renaissance Faire

FAIRE FAST FACTS...

- Celebrating 20 YEARS in 2018 as Connecticut's LARGEST Renaissance Festival
- A Family Adventure: Experience An enchanted recreation of what a harvest festival might have been like in an English village during the 16th century
- 32,000+ Facebook Fans
- A Craft Bazaar: wander the streets of a bustling Renaissance-themed marketplace between shows and discover a king's ransom in gift treasures, foods, turkey legs, wine, mead, and craft brews
- 7 Consecutive Weekends: Every Saturday and Sunday, plus Labor Day and Columbus Day Monday from September 1 to October 14, 2018
- 12 Stages of fun and more than 120 themed performances daily including jousting, comedy, armored combat, archery and live-flight falconry demos, circus-style entertainment and more
- Hundreds of street performers, costumed characters, and volunteers
- Located at 122 Mack Road, Lebanon, CT, minutes from Hartford, Providence, and New London

CTFAIRE.COM

