

The Connecticut Renaissance Faire Announces a Spellbinding 2025 Season

New Shows. New Surprises. New England's Old England Returns August 30!

Lebanon, Connecticut (April 23, 2025)

The gates to 'New England's Old England' swing open once more as The Connecticut Renaissance Faire returns for its 27th season-more magical, musical, and mischievous than ever before. Running from August 30 to October 19, 2025, this beloved tradition invites families, fans, and fantasy lovers of all ages to step back into a 16th-century celebration of history, hilarity, and handcrafted wonder. Held at the Lebanon Country Fairgrounds, the Faire now spans eight themed weekends (including Labor Day and Columbus Day Mondays), offering more entertainment, immersive experiences, and nostalgia than ever before.

Brand New for 2025:

- Bardy Pardy (Oct 18-19 only): Musical comedy, folk harmonies, and storytelling.
- The Longshanks (Aug 30 - Sep 14): Elegant stilt acrobats with tales from the northern woods.
- Throne of Games (All 8 weekends): Game show chaos with James Clever.
- Timbalanced (Oct 5-19): A circus-style carnival of juggling and interactive games.
